from $9,881 to $15,478. Qualified applicants should write to John B. Bindl, director of probation.

The International Association of Pupil Personnel Workers will hold its annual meeting at Toronto, Canada, October 17 to 21, 1971. L. Ray Spoar, P.O. Box 558, Hamilton, Canada, is president of the IAPPW. John W. Throne, 620 Jessop Place, York, Pa., 17403, is treasurer.

Violence in America is the title of a 24-page Public Affairs Pamphlet (No. 450) by Irvin Block, a freelance writer of many articles on medical and social affairs. How To Help the Alcoholic, another pamphlet (No. 452), is by Pauline Cohen, project director of the National Experiment in Staff Development of the Family Association of America. Both pamphlets sell for 25 cents each. Special rates are available for quantity purchases. Orders for the pamphlets should be sent to Public Affairs Pamphlets, 381 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10016.

Delinquency prevention posters have been prepared by the Youth Development and Delinquency Prevention Administration of the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. The 11' x 15' or 23' x 30' paper or cardboard posters are suitable for hanging in offices, schools, meeting rooms, convention areas, and similar places. The three-color poster depicts a boy behind grilled bars and carries the title, "Some people think this is delinquency prevention . . . is it really?" Free copies may be ordered in multiples of 100 only. Write to Juvenile Delinquency, Washington, D.C. 20201.

The Trusty Division of the Southern Michigan Prison is to have a $100,000, 250-seat All-Faiths Chapel and also a $160,000 visitor's building with visiting rooms and space for classification offices. The donor, Warden Perry M. Johnson said, remains anonymous.

Continued use of methadone maintenance treatment for heroin addicts has been endorsed in another of a series of reports evaluating the New York State-sponsored methadone program administered by the Beth Israel Medical Center in New York City. Methadone is a synthetic drug, the Center points out, which, when properly administered, blocks the destructive effects of heroin.

The Involvement of Offenders in the Prevention and Correction of Criminal Behavior is the title of the 36-page October 1970 issue of Correctional Research, prepared by Albert Morris, emeritus professor of sociology at Boston University, and published by the Massachusetts Correctional Association, 33 Mt. Vernon Street, Boston, 02108. Copies are available without charge.

Index of Articles

VOLUME XXXIV, JANUARY TO DECEMBER 1970

Page

BAIL
- Pretrial Release: A Survey of Alternative Practices, Paul Wice and Rita James Simon, No. 4 — 60

CLASSIFICATION
- The Care and Feeding of Typologies and Labels, Hans Toch, No. 3 — 15

COMMUNITY-BASED PROGRAMS
- Youth Correctional Centers: A New Approach To Treating Youthful Offenders, George Saleebey, No. 1 — 49

CORRECTIONAL PRACTICES
- The Care and Feeding of Typologies and Labels, Hans Toch, No. 3 — 15
- Contemporary Correctional Practice: Science or Art?, Alvin W. Cohn, No. 3 — 20
- Corporal Punishment, A. M. Kirkpatrick, No. 1 — 41
- Corrections and the Community: A View Through a Crystal Ball, Dale G. Hardman, No. 1 — 19
- Corrections Is Based on the Dignity of Man, Joseph Rothstein, No. 1 — 38
- The Message Corrections Must Get Across, Richard L. Rachin, No. 2 — 3
- A New Prison Discipline: Implementing the Declaration of Principles of 1870, Howard B. Gill, No. 2 — 29
- Rehabilitation: Rhetoric and Reality, Norval Morris and Gordon Hawkins, No. 4 — 9
- The U.S. Air Force Prisoner Retraining Program, Floyd C. Kennedy, No. 3 — 39

COUNSELING
- Transactional Analysis: A New Method for Helping Offenders, Richard C. Nicholson, No. 3 — 29

CRIME
- Chromosomal Deviation and Crime, Menachem Amir and Yitzchak Berman, No. 2 — 55
- Crime in a Free Society: Choice or Challenge?, James D. Jorgensen, No. 1 — 14
- The Innocent Bystander and Crime, Leon Shaskolsky, No. 1 — 44
- The Law and the Urban Age, Frank W. Wilson, No. 2 — 19

EMPLOYMENT
- Needed: A Special Employment Clearinghouse for Ex-Offenders, William J. Byron, S.J., No. 3 — 53

GAULT DECISION
- Relationship of the Probation Officer and the Defense Attorney After Gault, Charles E. Cayton, No. 1 — 8

HALFWAY HOUSE
- Criswell House: An Alternative to Institutional Commitment for the Juvenile Offender, John M. Flackett and Gail Flackett, No. 4 — 30

NARCOTIC ADDICTION
- Methadone Patients on Probation and Parole, Herman Joseph, Vincent P. Dole, No. 2 — 42
- Narcotic Addiction Among Young People, Arthur J. Rogers, No. 2 — 34
- New Developments in the Federal Bureau of Prisons Addict Treatment Program, Gerald M. Farkas, David M. Petersen, and Norman I. Barr, No. 4 — 52

NARCOTICS AND DRUGS
- Control of Drug Abuse, Sidney Cohen, No. 1 — 32
- The Glue Sniffer, Ted Rubin and John Babbs, No. 3 — 23

OFFENDER TYPE
- The Chronic Mexican-Alien Immigration Offender, Omar G. Rios, No. 3 — 57

PAROLE
- Decisions! Decisions! Decisions!, Russell G. Oswald, No. 1 — 27
- A New Role for Parole Boards, F. Lovell Bixby, No. 2 — 24

PERSONNEL
- We Need People To Change People, Rudy San-

Page

filippo and Jo Wallach, No. 3 ---- 5

PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Message Corrections Must Get Across, Richard L. Rachin, No. 2 ---- 3

The News Media and Corrections, William L. Dulaney, No. 2 ---- 63

PRISONS

A New Prison Discipline: Implementing the Declaration of Principles of 1870, Howard B. Gill, No. 2 ---- 29

PROBATION

The American Bar Association Looks at Probation, Herbert S. Miller, No. 4 ---- 3

The Professional and the Volunteer in Probation: Perspectives on an Emerging Relationship, Ivan H. Scheier, No. 2 ---- 12

Relationship of the Probation Officer and the Defense Attorney After Gault, Charles E. Cayton, No. 1 ---- 8

PUNISHMENT

Corporal Punishment, A. M. Kirkpatrick, No. 1 ---- 41

REHABILITATION

Families Come to the Institution: A 5-Day Experience in Rehabilitation, Peter L. Stollery, No. 3 ---- 46

Rehabilitation: Rhetoric and Reality, Norval Morris and Gordon Hawkins, No. 4 ---- 9

Summary of The Report of the President's Task Force on Prisoner Rehabilitation, No. 3 ---- 3

RELIGION

Corrections Is Based on the Dignity of Man, Joseph Rothstein, No. 1 ---- 38

Page

SENTENCING

The Defense Lawyer's New Role in the Sentencing Process, Sheldon Portman, No. 1 ---- 3

Group Procedures in Sentencing: A Decade of Practice, Charles T. Hosner, No. 4 ---- 18

TRAINING SCHOOLS

Families Come to the Institution: A 5-Day Experience in Rehabilitation, Peter L. Stollery, No. 3 ---- 46

Institutional Innovations in Juvenile Corrections, Roy Gerard, No. 4 ---- 37

Work Hard and Hope for a Miracle, Too, Henry Kelley, No. 4 ---- 26

VOCATIONAL COUNSELING

Group Vocational Counseling for the Probationer and Parolee, Walter G. Rest and Ellen Jo Ryan, No. 2 ---- 49

VOLUNTEERS

"I'm Only One Person—What Can I Do?", Philip Stein, No. 2 ---- 7

The Professional and the Volunteer in Probation: Perspectives on an Emerging Relationship, Ivan H. Scheier, No. 2 ---- 12

Royal Oak's Experience With Professionals and Volunteers in Probation, Keith J. Leenhouts, No. 4 ---- 45

WORK RELEASE

Work-Release Programs in the United States: Some Difficulties Encountered, William A. Ayer, No. 1 ---- 53

YOUTH OFFENDER

Youth Correctional Centers: A New Approach To Treating Youthful Offenders, George Saleebey, No. 1 ---- 49

Contributors to This Issue

HERBERT S. MILLER: Deputy Director, Institute of Criminal Law and Procedure, Georgetown University Law Center, since 1965, and Adjunct Professor of Sentencing, Georgetown University Law Center, since 1967. B.A. (1949), Adelphi University; LL.B. (1958), Georgetown University. Deputy Legal Counsel, Oregon State Legislature, 1958-1961; Trial Attorney, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, 1961-1965. Chairman, Committee on Corrections and Rehabilitation of the Section of Criminal Law of the American Bar Association. Advisor: President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice (on Narcotics and Drug Abuse); Joint Commission on Correctional Manpower and Training. Reporter: Standards Relating to Probation.

NORVAL MORRIS: Julius Kreeger Professor of Law and Criminology and Director, Center for Studies in Criminal Justice, University of Chicago. Member of President's Task Force on the Rehabilitation of Prisoners; Member of American Bar Association Commission on Correctional Services and Facilities; Chairman of Illinois Governor's Advisory Council on Adult Corrections. Author, The Habitual Criminal (1951); Studies in Criminal Law (1964) with C. Howard; and The Honest Politician's Guide to Crime Control (1970) with G. Hawkins.

GORDON HAWKINS: Senior Lecturer in Criminology at the University of Sydney and Research Associate in the Center for Studies in Criminal Justice, University of Chicago. He has been a Fellow of the University of Wales, Deputy Governor of Leyhill Prison, England, and Assistant Principal of the United Prison Staff College. He has written extensively on correctional problems, and with Norval Morris, wrote The Honest Politician's Guide to Crime Control (1970).

CHARLES T. HOSNER: Chief Probation Officer, U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Michigan, since 1962. A.B. (1933), University of Michigan. Caseworker, Michigan Department of Social Welfare, 1935-1937; Probation Officer (1937-1954) and Deputy Chief Probation Officer (1954-1962), U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Michigan. Great Lakes Regional Representative (1958-1964) and Secretary-Treasurer (1964-1966), Federal Probation Officers Association. Member, City of Detroit Mayor's Committee on Crime and Delinquency, 1965-1967. Author: A Compilation of State and Federal Statutes Relating to Civil Rights of Persons Convicted of Crime (1960).

HENRY KELLEY: Assistant Superintendent, Industrial School for Boys, Shirley, Mass., since 1959. A.B. (1950) and M.Ed. (1955), Boston University. Principal, Industrial School for Boys, 1953-1959.

JOHN M. FLACKETT: Associate Professor, Boston College Law School, since 1968. B.A. (1956), University of Birmingham; LL.B. (1958), St. John's College, Cambridge; LL.M. (1962), University of Pennsylvania. Lecturer and Assistant Professor, University of British Columbia, 1959-1962; Assistant Professor, University of Western Ontario, 1962-1963; Visiting Assistant Professor, University of Texas, 1963; Associate, Donovan, Leisure, et al., New York City, 1963-1966; Assistant Professor and Associate Professor, University of Florida, 1966-1968; Visiting Associate Professor, University of Illinois, 1967.

GAIL FLACKETT: B.A. (1959), University of Pennsylvania; M.R.C. (1968), University of Florida.

ROY E. GERARD: Director, Robert F. Kennedy Youth Center, Morgantown, W. Va., since 1968. M.A. (1955),

UM